

HEATHER MOORE

Community Gallery

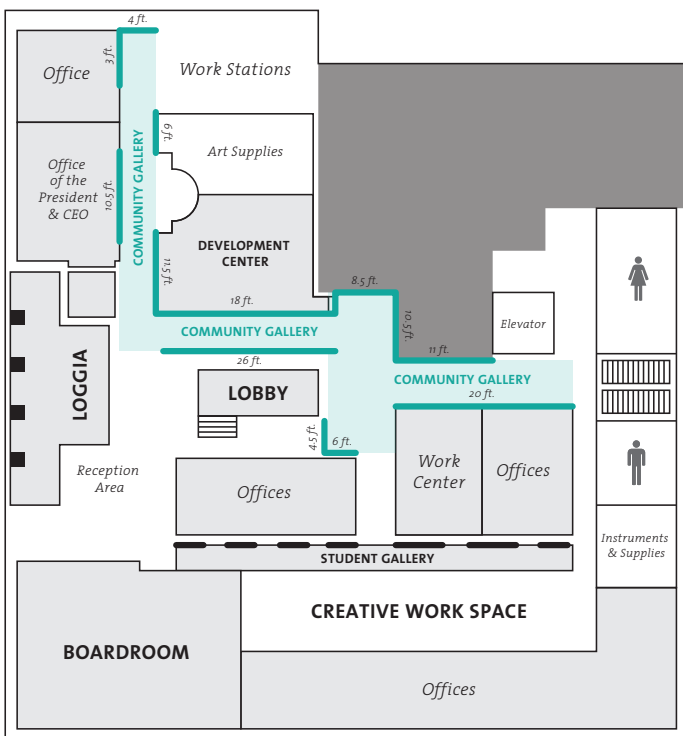

207 N. Laura Street, Suite 300 | Jacksonville, FL 32202

Access to original works of art is an invaluable component of a lifelong appreciation of the arts. The Heather Moore Community Gallery provides an ongoing opportunity for the community to directly engage with rotating fine art exhibitions of all media, from emerging and established artists.

With 160 linear feet of exhibition space, artists will be invited to display their artwork on a rotating basis and speak at opening night receptions and special gatherings.

Located in the heart of Downtown Jacksonville, the gallery may be available to the public during Art Walk and other Downtown events, or to host private events.

Mission

The Heather Moore Community Gallery enriches the quality of life in Northeast Florida by providing a unique venue for emerging and established artists to exhibit original works of art.

The purpose of the gallery is to nurture individual artistic expression, encourage the exchange of ideas and inspire a lifelong commitment to the arts.

Exhibitions, related events and programs enrich the cultural footprint of our community by engaging the arts and educational communities, cultural organizations, and diverse audiences along the First Coast.
