“10,000 Years” an exhibition by Andrew Kozlowski opens at Cathedral Arts Project community gallery

Please join the Cathedral Arts Project for the opening reception of 10,000 Years, an exhibition by local artist Andrew Kozlowski, on Thursday, October 25. The reception will begin at 5:30 p.m. in the Heather Moore Community Gallery in the CAP offices, at 207 N. Laura Street, Suite 300, in Downtown Jacksonville. The event is free and open to the public.

Andrew Kozlowski is an artist and teacher who has been living and working in the Southeast for over a decade. He received his MFA in painting and printmaking from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2007, and his BFA in printmaking from Tyler School of Art, Temple University in 2003. His work has been included in numerous group exhibitions throughout the United States and abroad. In 2009 he completed a residency at the Frans Masereel Center in Belgium and was awarded the 2011-2012 Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Fellowship for his work in printmaking.

Kozlowski's works, as much as they reflect a complacent embrace of planned obsolescence, focus on a playful narrative of how objects define our culture and our time.

“I am curious about how our histories are shaped by objects we possess, share, discard, collect, and hold dear,” says Kozlowski. “Though the works in this exhibition reflect a range of media, they are united with a cast of characters, a mix of objects from high and low culture filtered through an anxious sense of humor. Ranging from beer cans and building debris, to ancient urns and human remains, these characters help tell stories that span the intimate moments of individuals to the grand disasters shared by everyone.”

The opening reception will include a presentation by the artist, which will begin approximately at 6:20 p.m. The exhibition will run through Wednesday, January 16, 2019. The community gallery is free and open to the public Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Heather Moore Community Gallery enriches the quality of life in Northeast Florida by providing a unique venue for emerging and established artists to exhibit original works of art. The purpose of the gallery is to nurture individual artistic expression, encourage the exchange of ideas and inspire a lifelong commitment to the arts. Exhibitions, related events and programs enrich the cultural footprint of our community by engaging the arts and educational communities, cultural organizations, and diverse audiences along the First Coast.

The Cathedral Arts Project is the leading nonprofit provider of quality, comprehensive and ongoing instruction in the visual and performing arts for elementary and middle school students in Duval County. The driving force behind all CAP programs is the belief that the arts matter – they provide essential skills, like creative thinking, perseverance, teamwork and self-discipline, that benefit all people in all areas of their lives.

Too often, certain populations of students do not have access to an arts-rich education because of limited access and resources in their schools, communities or homes. Yet these are the students for which the arts can have the strongest and longest-lasting impacts. CAP needs your support to accomplish its vision for every child in Northeast Florida to have access to a well-rounded, arts-rich education that endows his or her spirit with the imagination, self-confidence and strength of character that inspires great leadership and a will to succeed.
