

Close the door on expensive replacements; refinish professionally at fraction of the cost

A wood door is often the showpiece of a home's exterior, but when it's been treated harshly by Florida weather it's hard to imagine the grandeur of what it once was when all you see is a faded finish on a rough and dried out façade.

Your inclination might be to replace the old door, but first consider getting a quote from R.J. Katsma, owner of Doors And More Refinishing. Refinishing is much more affordable than you think, it will be restored to its natural beauty – and you'll get a one-year warranty.

Below the surface of a tired and weathered wood door, Katsma finds the qualities that will bring your door back to stunning splendor.

"The door is typically the focal point of your home's exterior, the first thing someone will notice," said Katsma, a master refinisher. "Doors are expensive, so you need to take care of them."

Katsma loves working with wood and also refinishes shutters, pergolas, outdoor teak furniture, and even teak sailboats. He takes his time and pays great attention to detail, as many happy clients agree.

"RJ combines craftsman and professional like few other home contractors. He has a real eye for detail, precision and quality and takes great pride in his work," said Will Ketchum, of Avondale. "Our front door (the original door on our home built in 1929) may not have been refinished since the 1950s. His process of stripping, sanding and refinishing left it beautifully restored. We wish we had done it sooner! Best of all, RJ works in a professional manner. He was exactly on time on the exact day we scheduled, did exactly what he proposed and even helped us noodle on the color until we got it just right. We had a great experience and would recommend him to anyone, especially owners of older homes who want their refinishing handled with care."

For a quick quote, simply text a photo of your door to (904) 334-5177 or email doorsandmorerefiniting@gmail.com. Katsma will provide an estimate you can't pass up.

Local art teacher surprised with art education award

Out of 59 art, dance, music and theater teachers from 34 schools nominated for the Any Given Child Jacksonville Reach Award, Terry Woodlief said she was surprised to be given the $2,500 award at the third annual Duval County Public Schools Celebration of the Arts April 5.

"I learned that my principal, as well as a few colleagues, nominated me," said Woodlief, art teacher at Central Riverside Elementary School and an Avondale resident.

The award is given to an arts educator who demonstrates teaching excellence, dedication to the teaching profession, and a commitment to innovation. Woodlief has served the community for more than four decades in arts education, including a position as museum educator for the Cummer Museum of Art and Gardens.

In August 2013, Central Riverside was the venue for the announcement that the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts would partner with City of Jacksonville, Duval County Public Schools and the Cathedral Arts Project. Jacksonville was chosen as the 14th Partner City nationwide for Any Given Child, a program that creates a long-range arts education plan for public schools through Grade 8.

"The AGC Jacksonville mission to ensure the arts for all children simply does not exist without active partnerships and each of us progressing the goals and moving the needle forward for our students. Terry Woodlief is a wonderful example of someone who quietly, thoughtfully and collaboratively moves us all forward," said Allison Galloway-Gonzalez, executive director of AGC Jacksonville. "As we all know, long journeys are accomplished one step at a time. It is so critical to celebrate along the way with each other because ultimately it is all our steps together that get us to our collective destination."
